Our Location

Studying in West London gives you the best of both worlds, a vibrant local community, and beautiful parks on your doorstep, with central London but a few stops away on the Tube. The Ealing and Brentford sites' proximity to key employers means easy access to part time work, and great potential for exploring your Graduate Route options.

Fees and Flexible Entry

Our international fees range from £13,250 to £16,800, making us one of the most affordable London universities. Beyond direct degree entry, our flexible intakes include pre-sessional English, integrated foundation, extended and enhanced extended masters programmes, depending on your academic and English language support needs. Entry points are available several times a year, as well as our main direct degree commencement dates in September and February.

How to Apply

It is very simple to apply for a course at UWL as an international student. Use our course search or view our programme areas to select the course that suits you, then on your course page follow the steps to apply using the 'Apply now' button.

Student Visa Route

As a degree seeking student you will need to demonstrate that you have the right to study in the UK if you are a non-UK national. You will need a valid immigration status that permits study, such as holding a Student Visa, or having Settled or Pre-settled Status as part of the EU Settlement Scheme, or another type of valid Leave to Remain that permits study in the UK. If you are unsure whether you need to apply for a visa to, please see the UK government's Student Visa web pages.
